Dear Dr. Christian Werner

President of Deutsche Gesellschaft für Anaesthesiologie und Intensivmedizin
(German Society of Anaesthesiology and Intensive Care Medicine)

On behalf of Alexandria Society of Anaesthesia and Intensive Care, It is our great pleasure to ANNOUNCE YOU the 19th Alexandria Society of Anaesthesia and Intensive Care Conference; one of the most comprehensive Anaesthesia educational events in Egypt and the Middle East in 2015 with attendance of more than 2000 physicians; nurses and tech.

This gathering is organized by Alexandria Society of Anaesthesia and Intensive Care in collaboration with Anaesthesia and Surgical Intensive Care Department, Alexandria University.

The Congress will be held in the prestigious Bibliotheca Alexandrina - Alexandria, Egypt from 13 to 15 October 2015.

Our history since 18 years was very successful, with a high caliber of more than hundreds of International speakers from USA, Europe, Middle East, Asia, India and a valuable contribution with Mayo Clinic, USA and Pennsylvania University, USA.

Further; for the all past years our conference was always accredited by Royal College of Anaesthesia and American Association for Continuous Medical Education.

This year, after Egypt has well accomplished its great revolution and restarted the engine with full power in all domains; it is time for another challenge and another experience in the 19th ASAIC Conference. All efforts are united for the goal of performing a very successful event to be marked in mind for many years.

Different conference committees already started their work, and the conference has a president; with the full support of all Egyptian universities and centers.
